

Green Park Elementary celebrates a Century of Class

School board members took a walk through a century of history last night thanks to Green Park Elementary students who were advertising their school's Centennial Week activities scheduled for later this month.

Library-Media Specialist Michelle Shaul directed a skit which featured students talking about the Centennial schedule of events on telephones from the past 100 years. Principal Mike Lambert even played a role as they encouraged everyone to celebrate with them and honor those who have made Green Park a Walla Walla treasure.

Sharpstein's Recorder Karate

Sharpstein 4th and 5th grade students displayed their talents last night by playing their recorders during the school board meeting.

Music Teacher Lori Parnicky has developed "Recorder Karate" to motivate students to improve their skills. Each time they advance their skills they earn a new "belt" color in the form of a bead to place on their recorders. These students have all earned their "black belts."

Wa-Hi Crest Club plans annual blood drive

The Walla Walla Crest Club is planning its annual American Red Cross blood drive Thursday, May 11 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Wa-Hi Small Gym.

"The girls have been working hard at planning the drive and collecting food donations for the canteen, and they're hoping to recruit over 100 high school donors," Wa-Hi Social Studies teacher and club advisor Jillian Huber said. "Each unit of blood can save up to three lives!"

All donated blood is given to the local American Red Cross office. Crest Club is an all senior girls club for students with 3.0 or higher GPAs. For more information, contact Huber at 527-3020.

Spring sports students honored for academics

Congratulations to Wa-Hi spring sports student-athletes for earning Academic Recognition honors from WIAA. Fourteen out of 18 teams competing this spring received honors. Teams with a combined team GPA of 3.0 to 3.499 receive the WIAA Distinguished award and teams with a combined team GPA of 3.5 or better receive the WIAA Outstanding award.

District Jazz Band Concert rescheduled

The Spring Jazz Band concert featuring the Wa-Hi, Pioneer and Garrison Jazz Bands has been rescheduled for Tuesday, May 23 at 7 p.m. in the Wa-Hi Auditorium.

"This avoids a conflict with Walla Walla Symphony's final concert," Wa-Hi Band Director Andrew Ueckert said. "Join us in supporting these talented musicians for our last concert of the year."
