

“Let’s Talk Schools — We’re Listening”

“Let’s Talk Schools — We’re Listening,” the district’s information gathering campaign, begins this fall to involve the community in a facilities needs study in light of last May’s failed bond issue.

Communications Director Mark Higgins reported the district would be participating in numerous activities to allow community members to be heard.

“This is an opportunity for community members, staff, parents and students to be heard and be involved in the district’s facilities planning efforts,” Higgins said. “These are Walla Walla’s schools and we need broad involvement to determine what is best for the district and community.”

Look for more information on the “Let’s Talk Schools — We’re Listening” campaign in the Walla Walla Union Bulletin and in district publications.

“Please take time to get involved and help shape the future of our schools,” Superintendent Rich Carter said. “Stay tuned for more information.”

Preliminary enrollment counts positive

With the first official enrollment count of 2006-2007 due Friday, Deputy Superintendent Dr. Bill Jordan is cautiously optimistic. Preliminary “head count” tallies are 80 students ahead of last year at this time, according to Jordan’s report.

He went on to state the preliminary FTE or Full-Time Equivalent count of 5835.2 puts the district roughly 170 FTEs over the district’s adopted budget.

Jordan said he will closely monitor enrollment counts this fall, but said the early counts are positive.

Fun at the Fair

Another year at the Walla Walla Fair and Frontier Days is in the books as Communications Director Mark Higgins and Technology Director Janis Barton provided a report to school board members last night recapping the activities. Higgins and Barton thanked Jim Ebding for coordinating fair activities and all the staff for volunteering their time setting up displays and monitoring the Education Building and Technology exhibit.

Higgins said the fair is a great way to showcase district pride and raise awareness about the importance of public education.
