

Levy Passing

Auditor to count remaining ballots Friday

WW County Auditor Karen Martin (L) reviews levy results on election night with School Board Member Mary Jo Geidl, Superintendent Rich Carter and Citizens for Schools Chairs Katie Christianson and Jennifer Northam.

The district's Replacement Levy was passing with a 54 percent approval rate. Martin said remaining ballots will be counted Friday afternoon, but said she did not expect the levy percentage to dip below the simple majority requirement of 50% plus one vote.

As of Tuesday night, 3016 voters said yes to the replacement levy while 2,521 voted no.

Touchet, Dixie, Waitsburg and Prescott School Districts were also passing replacement levies as of election night.

Board approves bond refunding

Move expected to save taxpayers nearly $400,000

Board members last night took another step to saving taxpayers nearly $400,000 by refinancing existing district bonds with a lower interest rate.

Senior Vice President Trevor Carlson of Seattle Northwest Securities said interest rates are at near all-time lows and make it attractive for the school district to refund the bonds at a lower rate.

He said all of the approximately $380,000 will go back to Walla Walla taxpayers. The process is expected to be completed by March 20.

Art Regier Outstanding Volunteer of the Year Award nomination announcement

Nominations for the annual Art Regier Outstanding Volunteer Award are now being accepted. This award was instituted in 1991 as a memorial to "Grandpa Art" Regier. Regier, a retiree who devoted years of service to elementary schools in Walla Walla, epitomized the spirit of volunteerism in education.

Send completed nomination forms to the Communications Department (364 South Park Street, Walla Walla, WA 99362) through Friday, March 28.

Each nomination may be accompanied by no more than three letters of recommendation. Recipients will be recognized at the April 15 school board meeting.

Inspectors give bus fleet thumbs up

Last night Superintendent Rich Carter presented Transportation Director Steve Olson with a Certificate of Achievement for recent Washington State Patrol school bus inspections.

"The Washington State Patrol school bus inspection team and I wish to commend your district and those persons responsible for the maintenance of your buses and for the outstanding bus inspections of winter and summer 2007," said Jan Clarence, Regional Transportation Coordinator from ESD 105.

Superintendent Carter thanked the Transportation Department staff for their hard work and efforts to keep the equipment in good working order and safe for transporting students and staff.

District leaders meet with area lawmakers

Superintendent Rich Carter and School Board President Anne Golden traveled to Olympia last week to meet with area legislators.

Carter said funding for public schools continues to be a topic of discussion. He said Washington state public schools are in a financial crisis due to state funding formulas that have not been changed for years.

Carter asked lawmakers to not approve any legislation that is under-funded or unfunded. He said schools can not take on the additional burden without adequate funding.
