District schools receive 2011 Washington Achievement Awards

The Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction and the State Board of Education recently announced Garrison Middle School and Walla Walla High School received 2011 Washington Achievement Awards. The Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction and the State Board of Education created the Washington Achievement Award to celebrate our top-performing schools and to recognize achievement in multiple categories.

Garrison Middle School

- Special Recognition – Improvement

Walla Walla High School

- Special Recognition - Extended Graduation Rate

Comment from Superintendent Mick Miller

“It is gratifying to have schools and programs receive acknowledgment for their improvement. Our staff members deeply care for their kids and are working to help improve the achievement of each student. Congratulations to those recognized by OSPI!” Mick Miller, Superintendent

Garrison Middle School

“We are thrilled to have our school honored for our work in closing the achievement grant. Our students and staff have been working very hard the past three years to implement systems changes and instructional interventions to assure all students learn. I cannot express my appreciation enough to our staff and students for their hard work and determination! We are excited to have our efforts recognized by our state organization.” Gina Yonts, Garrison MS Principal

Walla Walla High School

“This award is reflective of our entire community and their high expectations for Walla Walla High School. Our teachers, counselors and support staff are the key; they go out of their way to ensure that every student gets the opportunity to succeed and leave us career and college ready.” Pete Peterson, Walla Walla HS Principal

This highly selective award is based on each school’s performance according to the Washington Achievement Index, a comprehensive measurement of how schools in Washington are performing over time. The Washington Achievement Award is given to elementary, middle, high and comprehensive schools in seven different categories: overall excellence, language arts, math, science, extended graduation rate (high and comprehensive schools only), improvement and closing achievement gaps.

Yonts and Peterson have been invited to an awards ceremony Wednesday, April 25 at Mariner High School in Everett. Visit OSPI’s Education Awards pages to learn more about the Washington Achievement Awards, including details on the Washington Achievement Index and the criteria for selection. <http://www.k12.wa.us>

Replacement levy ballots due February 14

Ballots for the district's Educational Programs and Operations Replacement Levy were mailed out to voters last week and must be returned and postmarked by Tuesday, February 14.

Whitman College to host Middle School Science Fair April 22

In an effort to provide an opportunity for local students to learn more about the scientific process, Whitman College announces that it will host a Middle School Science Fair Sunday, April 22, from 1-3:30 p.m. Projects may range from chemistry to biology to zoology, but must adhere to the science fair guidelines.

Students should choose a specific question that they can seek to answer through their own investigation, rather than an internet search. After developing a hypothesis, students will collect data and report their results in a journal. No experimenting on animals or contact with pathogenic organisms is allowed. Any safety concerns should be addressed BEFORE the start of the project. This event is open to individual students in grades six through eight (no group projects). The deadline to register is Friday, March 30. Due to space constraints, only the first 50 registrants will be accepted.

3rd Annual AVID Academic Recognition and Family Night

- Presenter: Erin Jones, OSPI Assistant Superintendent of Student Achievement
- Topic: Building bridges between schools, families and communities
- Date: Wednesday, Feb. 22
- Time: 5:30 to 7 p.m. - Free dinner @ 5:30 p.m. / Program begins @ 6 p.m.
- Location: Walla Walla High School Commons

Erin Jones, OSPI Assistant Superintendent of Student Achievement, returns to Walla Walla to lead a discussion on building bridges between schools, families and communities during the Third Annual AVID Academic Recognition and Family Night Wednesday, Feb. 22 from 5:30 to 7 p.m. at the Walla Walla High School Commons.

Jones was hired in 2008 as the Director of the Center for the Improvement of Student Learning, where her focus is on creating a repository of best-practices for educators and building bridges between schools,

“The most powerful changes we can make are changes in our own attitudes about kids—all kids can be successful, no exceptions!” said Jones.

AVID, Advancement Via Individual Determination, is an elementary through postsecondary college readiness system that is designed to increase schoolwide learning and performance. AVID students are expected to access rigorous curriculum and the elective class is an avenue for students to acquire the skills in communication, critical thinking, note-taking, peer-tutoring, organization and time-management.

Walla Walla High School students involved in the AVID program will be recognized for academic achievement during the event. Last year, all fifteen of the seniors in the AVID program went on to higher education institutions after high school. The AVID project is a collaborative effort between Washington State University GEAR UP, Walla Walla Public Schools, and our community.

Walla Walla music students selling citrus

Walla Walla band, orchestra and choir students will be taking orders for oranges, grapefruit and tangelos, as part of the 3rd Annual Music Boosters Citrus Sale. Fruit is sold by the 20 lbs. or 40 lbs. box at a cost of $20 and $35 respectively. This is the Music Boosters only fundraiser and helps provide the extras that make your Music Program a success.

The fruit is delicious and it is a great way to support our students participating in orchestra, band, choir and music at every level. The sale will run from February 6-21. For more information find us on Facebook at Walla Walla Public Schools Music Program or call 526-1916.
